

American Film Institute (AFI) is a prescribed university outside of Canada and is therefore a qualified donee under the Canadian Income Tax Act. As a qualified donee, AFI can issue official donation receipts and is eligible to receive gifts from registered charities originating in Canada. Please see publication 113-17e for more information located on the Canada Revenue Agency website.

To begin the process, please complete your donation directly on AFI's donation portal.
